B. Records that need a formal application of request before they may be viewed – Section 51(1)(e).

- Administration Records and Correspondence
- Human Resources and Remuneration Records if any
- Operational, Accounting and Financial Records

No Third Party records or information will be supplied to any person without the express permission in person and in writing by such Third Party.

C. REQUEST PROCEDURES

- The requester must use the prescribed form (Form C) to make a request for access to a record. This must be made to the head of the private body. The request must be made to the address, fax number or electronic mail address of the body concerned – Section 53(1).
- The requester must provide sufficient detail on the request form to enable the head of the private body to identify the record and the requester. The requester should also indicate which form of access is required. The requester should also indicate if any other manner is to be used to inform the requester and state the necessary particulars to be so informed – Section 53(2)(b) & (c).
- The requester must identify the right that is sought to be exercised or to be protected and provide an explanation of why the requester is required for the exercise or protection of that right – Section 53(2)(d)
- If a request is made on behalf of another person, the requester must then submit proof of the capacity in which the requester is making the request to the satisfaction of the head of the private body – Section 53(2)(f).

D. FEES

- A requester who seeks access to a record containing personal information about that requester is not required to pay the request fee. Every other requester, who is not a personal requester, must pay the required request fee (Annexure 1).
- The head of the private body must notify the requester (other than a personal requester) by notice, requiring the requester to pay the prescribed fee (if any) before further processing the request – Section 54(1).

SECTION 51 MANUAL
